

EXPERIENCE GREECE

EIGHT-DAY CHARTER ITINERARY

Greece

YOUR INTINERARY AT A GLANCE

1

ATHENS / KEA

2

MYKONOS

3

PAROS

4

IOS

5

SANTORINI

6

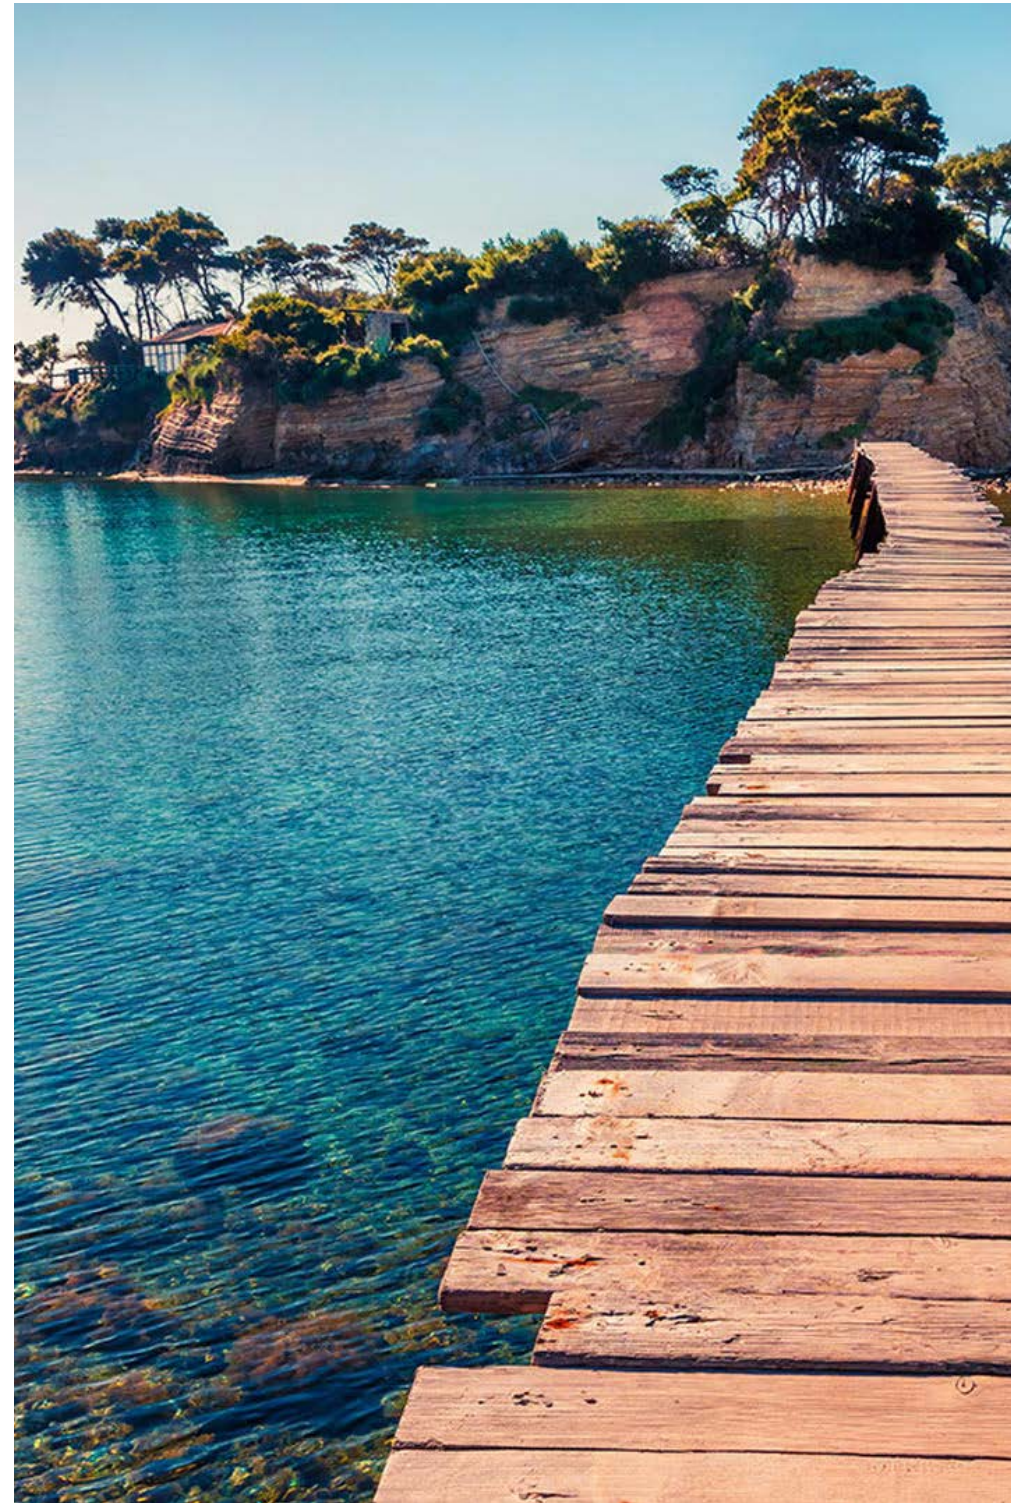

MILOS

7

SERIFOS

8

ATHENS

AEGEAN SEA

GREECE

DAY 1

* 40NM

ATHENS TO KEA

Athens is known for its rich culture and history, it's the heart of an Ancient civilization and home to many of the world's greatest inventors and mathematicians. The Cyclades Islands are notorious for sandy beaches, memorable sunsets, white stone buildings, blue roofs, delicious food, and its friendly, hospitable people.

All aboard to Kea, where blue and green coves await your arrival and are the canvas for the perfect picture of what to expect on your Greek Islands charter! Explore Loulida, walk through the maze of stunning roads and archways filled with flowers or climb to the Venetian fortress. Your charter adventure has just begun, we hope you enjoy your stay.

DAY 2

* 45NM

MYKONOS

Have you ever been asked to pick a card? Because today you picked the King of hearts. Correct, you are now in the loving island of Mykonos, the King of the Cyclades. Windmills, whitewashed blue shuttered houses, soft sand and crystal waters attract visitors from all over the world. If you think it couldn't get any better, add your festive cheer to the party vibes and hold nothing back, after six decades Mykonos has acquired quite the party reputation. Check out the local hot spots with some of the best night clubs in the world, the most popular are Cavo Paradiso, ASTRA, Paradise Beach, Guzel and Madon.

Alemagou beach is the perfect place to relax and prepare for an exciting evening at Nammos. Visit nearby Delos where the proud washed out stone lions still stand and guard the temple ruins. According to legend this is also the birthplace of both Artemis and the mighty Apollo.

DAY 3

*18 NM

PAROS

Paros is the third largest Island in the Cyclades and famous for its golden beaches, serene landscapes, valleys and rolling hills that are dotted with small churches and monasteries. The Archaeological Museum in Athens has a vast number of statues that were found at various sites within Paros. There are also some very interesting historical monuments, check out the ancient windmill and the fascinating Church of 100 doors. Taste the local cuisine at Taverna Tsitsanis or walk down the narrow paved alleys. Paros is slowly becoming the next Mykonos, with a dazzling night life and an array of fine dining restaurants

DAY 4

*25 NM

IOS

Ios, also known as the island of youth, where young people from all over the world meet and share their summer holidays. Famous for its vivid nightlife and various bars, cafes, clubs, restaurants and beaches, all wrapped up in crystal clear waters. The coastline of this mountainous island contains countless chapels, olive trees and vineyards. Make the effort to explore its rural landscape and beautiful villages and you'll be pleasantly surprised by what you find.

Relax on Manganari Beach or indulge in one of the several restaurants located along the beachside. Cruising around on your private yacht will allow you to visit several of the best beaches in one day and enjoy the delicious meals prepared by your private chef!

DAY 5

*20NM

SANTORINI

Santorini is the Queen to Mykonos' King. The perfect location for romance, culture and picturesque sunsets, no wonder it's a bucket-list destination. The steep western coastline is countered by the vast eastern beaches, mixing up the sand with the pebbles. Head up to Fira, the capital of Santorini, make a new friend and head up the path by donkey back or for those of you who'd prefer to take the high road, we suggest the cable car. Before you know it, you'll be on the narrow winding streets of Fira.

Down the center of the city runs the Sacred Way. These buildings include groups of houses, marketplaces, baths, theaters, sanctuaries, the residence of Ptolemy Euergetes, tombs of the Archaic and Classical periods and Early Christian remains.

DAY 6

* 53 NM

MILOS

Welcome to unspoiled Milos, with stunning landscapes, spectacular rock formations, caves, and thermal springs, inspiration of sorts for the back of a postcard. The Island was once home to the famous statue of Aphrodite, which has been relocated to the Louvre Museum in Paris. However, there are still plenty of local masterpieces and sites to explore, including churches, catacombs, and the Naval Museum. Grab a bite to eat at Al Fresco within the pretty port of Pollonia.

The two famous beaches on the island are Kleftiko and Sarakiniko. Kleftiko used to be an old hide-out for pirates and the geologic formations created by the wind and sea are the perfect place for swimming and exploration. Both beaches are only accessible by sea. Sarakiniko beach is one of the most photographed locations in all of the Cyclades, boasting white volcanic rocks standing tall against the sapphire blue waters of the idyllic Aegean Sea.

DAY 7

*30 NM

SERIFOS

Moving on to greener pastures, Serifos is one of the few islands in the Cyclades Islands that has lush vegetation, with sandy beaches, serene landscape and picturesque villages. The rocky coastline is deeply indented with a chain of coves and bays. White houses ascend all the way to the Venetian Castle, like something out of a fairy tale, head up the trail and take a look for yourself.

Serifos is surrounded by magnificent beaches on every coast and countless trekking paths with local flora growing everywhere. The island's most enchanting spot is its capital, Chora, an ancient village sitting high on a hilltop, promising unbelievable views of the glowing horizon below.

DAY 8

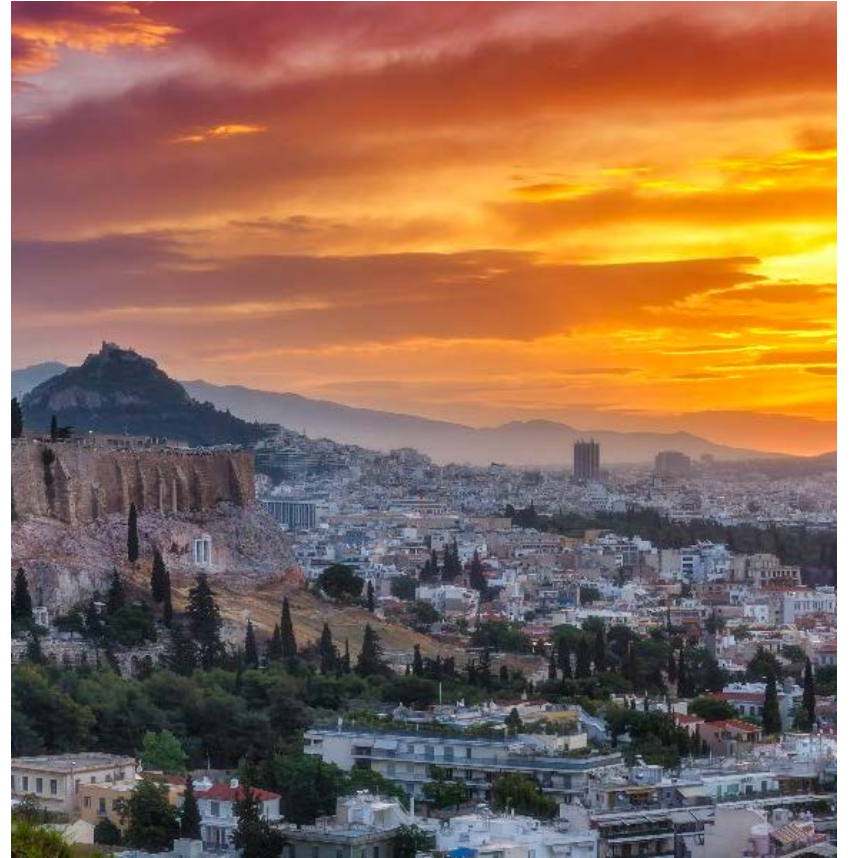

* 65NM

ATHENS

The sprawling city of Athens welcomes you back! In this city the old mixes with the new, you can tour ancient sites in the morning and head to a cosmopolitan shopping complex in the afternoon.

As the capital of Greece, you are sure to find plenty to do. See landmarks from the past in sites such as the Acropolis and the colonnaded Parthenon temple. Until our next adventure, we wish you all the best!

The proposed itinerary is just a suggestion. The beauty of a private charter is the ability customize your adventure.